Congratulations to members of the first graduating class of UBC Okanagan. You have begun a tradition of excellence and achievement that will have a profound impact on this community for years to come.

Graduation is the most important day in any university calendar. It is the day when you are finally rewarded for your years of hard work, very little recognition and very little money. You have learned, grown and matured during your time at UBC Okanagan, and you leave with a real sense of accomplishment.

Graduation is also a time of new beginnings. With this part of your life completed, you will move on to new challenges and new opportunities. As alumni of this exceptional university, you will help shape and develop our Okanagan communities: you will operate our businesses, manage our resources, provide health care, teach our children, provide political leadership and nourish our culture.

At the same time, you have been prepared to approach issues from a global perspective. UBC has taken its place on the world stage, and our work touches lives and economies far beyond our borders. As an institution, UBC has embraced the needs, opportunities and energies of our times, and you have been well equipped to deal with these at home and abroad.

The architect of UBC's development as a global university is our President, Martha Piper, who is retiring from the university this year. Her passion and her dedication have defined UBC for the 21st Century, and her vision – to create global citizens at home and abroad – will be her lasting legacy.

Our greatest responsibility as educators is to provide you with the tools you need to be successful in a complex, competitive and challenging world. The education you have received at UBC is the best any university can offer. It forms the foundation upon which you will build your future achievements.

I hope your time at UBC Okanagan has taught you the value of knowledge. I hope, too, that you have learned to recognize the opportunities presented by change, and that you have acquired the skills and courage to take advantage of that change.

Congratulations on your accomplishment.

Allan McEachern, Chancellor

PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

Warm congratulations to you, the members of the Graduating Class of 2006—the first graduating class of UBC Okanagan! You are helping to make history, and your academic achievements carry a double significance: they are evidence of personal success, and they point the way for others to follow.

Your studies have coincided with some momentous events in the world: from wars in Afghanistan and Iraq, to devastating natural disasters like the tsunami in the Indian Ocean and Hurricane Katrina in the southern United States. Such dramatic developments are a painful reminder of the vulnerability of human life, and may leave us feeling inadequate or helpless in the belief that we can have little or no influence on the crises and calamities that face our society.

At this moment, however, as you begin a new stage in your life and experience, you should recognize that you can and will make a difference, because you possess the knowledge and skills that are conferred by a good education.

At every level of your UBC education, you have been exposed to the rigours of critical thinking, to the complexities of problem-solving, and to the need for risk-taking and imagination in the creation of new ideas. Your course-work has provided you with strong communication skills in a variety of media, and taught you the value of teamwork and collaboration. You have encountered people and ideas from a wide variety of backgrounds, in the process acquiring a new understanding of, and respect for, cultures and traditions that differ from your own.

As graduates of the University of British Columbia Okanagan, you now have a unique opportunity to turn your hard-earned expertise and knowledge to good use, to become involved in your society, and to offer your ideas and solutions with the confidence that they will be heard and respected.

Whatever your choice of career or profession, you will encounter challenges that call on the skills, insights, and understanding you have developed at UBC Okanagan. These qualities will also come into play as you learn to exercise the responsibilities of global citizenship and move into leadership roles. Society will look to you to help eradicate injustice, inequality, and poverty; it will be up to you to find solutions to the social, economic, and environmental problems that afflict us.

Over the years I have attended many graduation ceremonies, and I have always been moved and inspired by the optimism and idealism of new graduates as they face the next stage of their lives in a world marked by uncertainty, conflict, and change. Whatever the challenges that await you, I am confident that, as a member of the UBC Okanagan Graduating Class of 2006, you have the potential, not only to achieve personal and professional success, but also to help move society towards the ideals of peace, justice, and prosperity for all.

The future is yours—Tuum est!

Martha C. Piper, O.C., O.B.C.
President

Elders, Chiefs, Board of Governors, dignitaries, UBC Okanagan faculty and staff, family, friends, visitors, students and graduates, on behalf of the Okanagan Nation Chiefs and our member communities we welcome you to our beautiful territory and to the UBC Okanagan Spring Congregation 2006.

We are pleased to be provided this opportunity to extend our congratulations to all the new graduates of UBC Okanagan. You will go down in history as the first ever UBC Okanagan graduates.

We are honoured to be part of your Congregation. Ceremony and recognition of achievement, and the meaning inherent in special events like this one have always been an integral part of syilx culture, beliefs and customs. Learning has always been fundamental to well-being and survival of our communities. Traditionally, Okanagan people valued life-long learning. Education and academic excellence are also a part of syilx culture. The honoring of one's intellect and knowledge has always been important. The Okanagan traditions and ceremonies awarded achievement no matter how big or small.

Announcements were made to the Nation that "this is a day of significance to this person, (family and/or community) and you are all welcome to share in this celebration". The Okanagan shared their land, their teaching, and their culture with others and now as graduates, you too will have this opportunity to share your education with the community. Your educational attainment will serve you well, especially if you use it to serve your communities!

The Okanagan Nation Alliance and the UBC Okanagan have forged a new path of partnership and inclusion so that we can all learn to embrace, strengthen and celebrate our diversity. The pursuit of academic excellence will continue to advance and transform our societies. Okanagan participation in today's congregation ceremony and within this University bodes well for our future and our communities.

UBC BOARD OF GOVERNORS

UBC's 21-member Board of Governors comprises the chancellor, the president, eleven persons appointed by the lieutenant-governor, three faculty members elected by faculty, three full-time students elected by students and two people elected by and from the full-time employees of the university who are not faculty members.

By legislation, the board is responsible for the management, administration and control of the property, revenue, business and affairs of the university including the appointment of senior officials and faculty on the recommendation of the president. The governors represent diverse backgrounds, which provide valuable input during board deliberations.

UBC TRADITIONS

ACADEMIC REGALIA

The wearing of academic costume is a tradition that has persisted from the Middle Ages, when the first Universities were founded. The regalia vary slightly from one University to another, and within a University, according to the status of the wearer. At the University of British Columbia, the undergraduate's gown is black.

The colours for the degrees being granted in 2006 at UBC Okanagan are as follows:

B.A. — University blue

B.Ed. — White with University blue cord

B.F.A. — University blue with magenta cord

B.S.N. — Scarlet with University blue and white twisted cord

B.S.W. — Magenta

B.Sc. — Light blue

The hood for the honorary degree LL.D. is of scarlet broadcloth lined in dark blue velvet; for the D.Sc., it is lined in dark purple and for the D. Litt., it is lined in cream.

More information on degrees granted in Vancouver can be found at www.graduation.ubc.ca.

UBC'S DISTINGUISHED HISTORY OF GRADUATION

UBC's first Congregation ceremony took place on May 4, 1916 in the Hotel Vancouver ballroom. There were 41 graduates.

- UBC's first graduate degrees were conferred in 1919. The first degrees in Agriculture were conferred in 1921. The first Bachelor of Applied Science in Nursing and Forestry degrees were awarded at the eighth Congregation in 1923.
- Students at UBC's Vancouver campus now graduate from 12 faculties: Agricultural Sciences, Applied Science, Arts, Commerce and Business Administration, Dentistry, Education, Forestry, Graduate Studies, Law, Medicine, Pharmaceutical Sciences and Science.
- Students at UBC's Okanagan campus will graduate from four faculties at the 2006 Spring Congregation: The Irving K. Barber School of Arts and Sciences, Creative and Critical Studies, Education, and Health and Social Development.
- Each year since 1919, the graduating class in Vancouver has planted a tree to mark Congregation.
- The first Congregation ceremony on the present day Vancouver campus was held in 1927.
- When graduating students are presented to the chancellor he or she says "I admit you," welcoming them to convocation, the body of graduates that elects the chancellor and some university senators.
- Hoods and gowns worn by graduates are lined with colours that indicate the degree to be conferred. Members of the Congregation processions wear colourful academic regalia from around the world signifying their university of graduation and highest degree awarded.
- The gowns, hoods and mortarboards worn by graduating students evolved from clothes worn by European scholars in the Middle Ages.

THE UNIVERSITY MACE

The University Mace is a symbol of the authority of the Chancellor. It is displayed on ceremonial occasions, most notably during the Congregation ceremonies but also during the Installation of a President or Chancellor.

The Mace is carried by the 'Macebearer' who leads the Platform Party, which includes the Chancellor, the President, and other dignitaries, onto the stage for the Congregation ceremonies.

The University Mace will be brought up from Vancouver for the first Congregation ceremony at UBC Okanagan. A new Mace will be created specifically for the Okanagan campus.

VANCOUVER CAMPUS

In the fall of 1957, the University commissioned Haida carver Bill Reid to undertake the project. Owing to Reid's heavy workload, he suggested that George Norris be asked to help design and carve the Mace. The planning of the Mace took some time and a final design was not approved until 1959.

Norris carved the Mace from a block of yew and it included a stylized thunderbird on the thick upper portion. The Mace also featured the use of copper that is prominent in Northwest Coast native art. This copper trimming was designed and prepared by Bill Reid. Norris completed the Mace in 1959 and it was first used at the Fall Congregation where the Director of Ceremonies, Malcolm McGregor, carried it for the first time.

O CANADA

O Canada! Our home and native land,
True patriot love in all thy sons command.

With glowing hearts we see thee rise,

The true north strong and free!

From far and wide, O Canada,

We stand on guard for thee.

God keep our land glorious and free!

O Canada, we stand on guard for thee,

O Canada, we stand on guard for thee.

UBC'S IMPORTANT HISTORICAL MOMENTS

The following list reflects important historical moments in UBC's history:

1908

- Provincial legislature passes a new "University Act" establishing The University of British Columbia. It provides for a Chancellor, a Convocation, a President, and a Board of Governors to manage the university's administration, property and business affairs, and a Senate to administer academic matters.

1910

- After a province-wide survey, Point Grey is selected as the site of UBC's new campus.

1913

- Dr. Frank Fairchild Wesbrook appointed first President of UBC.

1915

- The University of British Columbia opens in temporary headquarters at the former MUCBC facilities (nicknamed the "Fairview Shacks" after the surrounding neighbourhood) adjacent to Vancouver General Hospital. There are three faculties: Arts and Science, Applied Science and Agriculture. Student enrolment in September is 379 and total number of full- and part-time faculty is 34.

1922

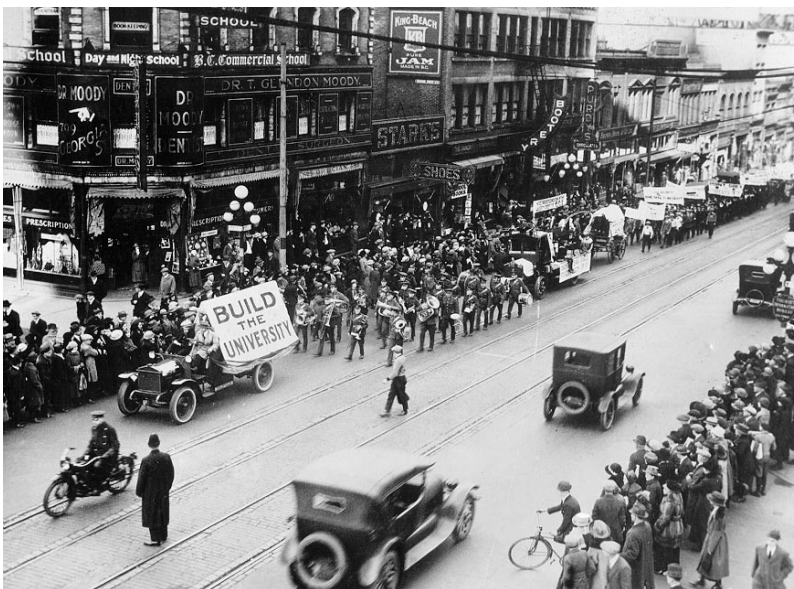

- Tired of over-crowded conditions and inadequate facilities, UBC students launch a campaign known as "Build the University" to resume construction at the Point Grey campus. With 56,000 names on a petition for the government, 1,200 students with floats, bands and banners march through the streets of downtown Vancouver to the Point Grey campus. This pilgrimage became known as the "Great Trek," as it successfully convinced the Government of BC to resume work on the Point Grey site. The "Great Trek" represents one of the greatest efforts of an undergraduate student body in support of its university and still reflects the spirit and pride of UBC students.

1925

- UBC moves to Point Grey campus.

1940

- Students contribute to the construction of Brock Hall, the university's first student union building.

UBC students march through the streets of Vancouver in the "Great Trek" of 1922.

1951

- Student initiative leads to construction of War Memorial Gymnasium, as a memorial to the British Columbians who died serving their country.

1979

- UBC awards its 100,000th degree.

1989

- UBC launches the “World of Opportunity” fundraising campaign to pay for new buildings, facilities, programmes, and scholarships. By the time it ends in 1993, this overwhelmingly successful campaign raises a total of $262 million.

1993

- U.S. President Bill Clinton and Russian President Boris Yeltsin meet at UBC during the “Vancouver Summit.”
- Dr. Michael Smith receives the Nobel Prize.

1997

- Dr. Martha C. Piper becomes UBC's new President.
- The Asia-Pacific Economic Cooperation (APEC) Leaders' Meeting brings the heads of the 18 leading economies around the Pacific Rim to Vancouver.

2000

- UBC celebrates 75 years at the Point Grey campus—which has changed considerably over the years—as it confers close to 6,000 degrees to graduating UBC students.

2001

- UBC opens its new downtown campus, UBC at Robson Square.

2004

- The B.C. Government announces the creation of UBC Okanagan, centered in Kelowna.
- 3 Nobel Peace Prize Laureates, – His Holiness the XIV Dalai Lama, Archbishop Desmond Tutu and Dr. Shirin Ebadi – are given Honorary degrees and participate in a unique roundtable dialogue with Rabbi Schachter-Shalomi and Dr. Jo-ann Archibald.

2005

- The Okanagan Nation Alliance welcomes UBC onto the traditional Okanagan territory during a celebration on the new UBC Okanagan campus.
- UBC Okanagan officially opens in Kelowna and welcomes its first students onto campus.

SUSTAINABILITY PLEDGE

Imagine all UBC graduating students making a collective statement of commitment to improving the sustainability of our communities.

UBC students have joined university and college graduates across North America in a growing movement to redefine the purpose of education. Students are committing to use their knowledge wisely to create positive change in the world.

Through the UBC Sustainability Pledge, you have the opportunity to commit to working toward a career and lifestyle with a conscience. The Pledge also links you to resources that will help you incorporate social, ecological, and economic aspects of sustainability into your professional and personal life.

The Pledge is more than just a personal commitment. Our collective voice sends a strong message to the university and the greater community that UBC students care about sustainability.

Take a graduating step to creating a more sustainable society, sign now at: www.sustain.ubc.ca/sustainable_u. This program was proposed and is managed by students, and is supported by the Office of Student Development and the Campus Sustainability Office.

"I pledge to explore and take into account the social and ecological consequences of my decisions. Furthermore, I pledge to use the knowledge I gain while at UBC to improve the sustainability of the communities in which I live, learn, and work."

This program was proposed and is managed by students, and is supported by the Office of Student Development and the Campus Sustainability Office.

WELCOME “FIRST CLASS” TO THE UBC ALUMNI FAMILY

Congratulations and welcome to the alumni family, made up of over 225,000 alumni worldwide. When you cross the stage at congregation, the Chancellor admits you into the UBC alumni body and your relationship to UBC enters a new phase.

As the first graduates of UBC Okanagan, you hold a special place in the history of UBC. Although graduation marks the end of your degree program, you will have a lifelong connection to your alma mater.

We will help you keep in touch with UBC through the award-winning Trek magazine, regular email newsletters, and through our online community. You will be invited to mentoring, social, educational, and career networking events, whether you remain here in the Okanagan or wherever in the world you may wander. You can help shape this programming by participating in alumni network groups as far away as London and Hong Kong or as close as Kamloops and Kelowna. We'll be happy to connect you.

We also offer alumni an ACard, purchase of which gives you discounts on goods and services on campus and off, and allows you free access to the UBC Library.

Remember our motto Tuum Est—UBC still belongs to you, so take advantage of that association.

You can reach us at 604-822-3313 or by visiting our website at www.alumni.ubc.ca.

THE GIFT OF LEARNING

Learning is not just about time spent in the classroom or lab. For some, the most powerful lessons from their time at university are about belonging and being a contributing member of the university community. That need not end at graduation.

UBC Okanagan's vision is to provide students, faculty and staff with an intimate learning environment of academic freedom and mutual respect with the latest technology and resources. The realization of this vision would not be possible without the generosity of alumni and friends of the university. Donations to UBC Okanagan ensure that students and the leaders of tomorrow are provided with the best education and research opportunities possible.

As you take a step forward towards your future, what better way to celebrate your success than to leave a contribution for the students who will follow in your footsteps. To learn about the many ways you can invest in the next generation of UBC Okanagan students, please contact the Development Office at 250.807.8565 or visit our web site at www.ubc.ca/okanagan/invest

Every gift makes a difference.

SIGNIFICANT ACCOMPLISHMENTS & CONTRIBUTIONS

HONORARY DEGREE RECIPIENTS

Prominent in the professions and the community, honorary degree recipients are recognized for their distinguished achievements in their respective endeavours and for the contributions their accomplishments make to the life of the university and the betterment of society. These degrees will be awarded during Spring Congregation.

William Bowering, LL.D.

Dr. William Bowering, UBC alumnus and a former president of Okanagan University College (OUC), has been an instrumental figure in expanding and developing post-secondary education in the Okanagan Valley during the past 28 years.

Bowering played a key role in the transition of Okanagan College to OUC. He then helped to develop OUC, introducing baccalaureate programs, expanded trades and technologies programs and building five regional OUC campuses throughout the Okanagan Valley. He will accept his degree during the morning ceremony on June 9.

Jeannette Armstrong, LL.D.

Jeannette Armstrong is a writer, teacher, artist, sculptor and activist and considered North America's first Aboriginal woman novelist. In 1978, she obtained a B.F.A. from the University of Victoria.

In 1986, Armstrong became the director of the En'owkin Centre in Penticton, and is also the first director of the En'owkin International School of Writing, a creative writing school organized by and for Aboriginal people. She will accept her degree during the afternoon ceremony on June 9.
